

The Power of Partnerships

Centralina businesses and career seekers face a wide range of workforce challenges. Businesses deal with ongoing turnover, retention issues, and high recruitment costs that can impact their bottom line. Career seekers need information on how to build and grow their career paths in industries that are in high demand. Get to know two local organizations committed to working together to serve career seekers and businesses to help become the “competitive force in our global economy.”

The Workforce Strategists:

Centralina Workforce Development Board

The competitive force in our global economy

“Leaders don’t wait. They shape their own frontiers.
The bigger the challenge, the greater the opportunity.”

Bob VanGorden, President BVG Consulting, Chair - Centralina Workforce Development Board

Centralina Workforce Development Board

As the board responsible for local workforce funding, we invest in our community by partnering with economic development, education and businesses to create innovative strategies to serve career seekers and businesses.

Our mission is very simple - - workforce development.

Our vision - - not so simple. It’s to make sure that every one of our region’s businesses can compete in the global economy with an exceptional workforce.

Our Priorities:

Workforce Planning

Workforce Research

Workforce and Economic Development Initiatives

Our Philosophy:

While our vision is lofty, we strive to create strategies to help workers and businesses compete in our global economy. Our driving principles around workforce leadership include:

- 1 Meeting and exceeding community workforce needs is the top priority.
- 2 Keeping a pulse in the community, and an eye on future trends provides us the foundation for creating innovative workforce strategies.
- 3 Collaboration is essential to workforce success.

The Workforce Specialist:

Centralina JobLink Career Centers

Commitment to workforce excellence

“Some people want it to happen, some wish it would happen, others make it happen.”

Michael Jordan
